The land saline and flowers also in and agricultural remains, which is the Rio Grande West Valley, so that your excursions read both ways will be most agreeable. Three distinct roads to the most magnificent scenery in the world. Send to J. H. Bennett, Salt Lake City, Utah, book "Utah, a trip in the mountains, Waller's Trip of the Gods."

The steamer Multnomah was chartered to Seattle, and at 12:30 p. m. the steamer pulled up at the dry docks, of which, Tacoma is the most elegant hall with punch was served, and it seemed to the farther we got in the north west the more unbounded the hospitality. At about 5 p. m. Seattle was sighted, and a turn with a committee steamed alongside, and the steamer was welcomed, and thus proved to be the contrary.

Even in this climate flowers bloom all year round.

The whole city of Seattle turned out to meet us, and upon landing we boarded the steamer for a ride through the city to the beautiful lake Washington, thence up to the lake to another lake back to the different hotel, where we were royally treated, and stowed off to the hotel. Seattle is well known for its beauty and quiet, and the steamer that offered our complimentary ledge lounge in the hotel. But little signs of the burly district that destroyed so much of this enterprising city could be seen; but instead, magnificent structures that any large city would be proud of. Seattle has in its midst several large lakes, the principal of which is Lake Washington, to be connected with Puget Sound by canal, and thus make a harbor of much benefit. It is not generally known that fresh water will remove all the barnacles that destroy the hull of vessels, which cause so much trouble to sailors.

Many species of the Celots, the early English voyagers to America will be exhibited at the Exposition by a company from Boston, Mass., the Bristol, England where the Celots came from.

Seattle has a beautiful location, great city and growing rapidly. It has a population of 60,000, and when the next census is taken the number will be many thousand larger. About 70 miles of street car lines traverse the streets, and solid walls of business blocks tell of marvelous progress. After breakfast the steamer, City of

The Trip Extended to Victoria.

The morning of the 30th ult., the party awoke to look upon the lands of Oregon. The Commissioners from Portland met us with cigars and a cordial greeting. A complimentary dinner was given at Albany by the Portlanders, which was a surprise, and was only a sample of the cordiality that awaited us. At Albany the Delegation were presented with a large bouquet of bluegrass and clover, which seemed to be duplicates of the genuine articles so largely used in our states. Oregon is called the "Land of the Evergreen." The Commissioners invited us to their cars at Oregon City and take the steamer Harvey Queen, down the Willamette river to Portland. This was a pleasant part of the program, and as the train pulled in the sound of music from a band blended with the falling water, was indeed overjoying. The Falls was indeed majestic. The Falls from the upper to the lower bed of the river represents a descent of 36 feet, and as the waters leap over the rugged rocks, foaming and lashing into spray, formed a beautiful picture from nature. A ride of 2½ hours to Portland, where we immediately took up to Hotel Portland one of the finest in the country, where a sumptuous dinner was served. The freedom of the theater was offered, where the "Power of the Press" was presented, which was indeed an appropriate program for the fraternal meeting.

The next day the party was given a tour of the Columbia river, and the large shipping interests were noted as we passed the extended wharfs on the Willamette river. Portland is at the head of deep water navigation of the Columbia and Willamette rivers, and the harbor can accommodate the largest vessels.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce,

BUCKNER LEAVELL
candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk subject to the nomination of the Democratic party.

Sam Jones has closed his meeting in Nashville.

The Ohio Democratic Convention is in session at Columbus to-day and is likely to instruct for Cleveland.

Bob Ford, the slayer of Jesse James, was killed at Crede, Col., last Wednesday, in a bar-room fight, by a man named Kelley.

Don't say "Eats" to Whitelaw Reid.
He is sensitive on point, so he ran a "rat" printing office until the day before he was nominated.

Would-be Vice President Reid has one more than Reed the First.
He ought to be able to "see" a quorum in the Senate without any trouble.

Chas. E. the colored tramp who assisted Miss St. Louis Pachuck three weeks ago, was captured last week and promptly lynched by a mob.

One of the Indiana delegates was named Shell or Sheel. Perhaps this explains why such hades was raised by the Indiana delegation at Minneapolis.

Col. L. L. Folk, President of the Farmers' Alliance, died in Washington Saturday of heart failure. He was a candidate for the third party nomination for President.

Bills admitting Arizona and New Mexico to the Union have passed the House, but the two Democratic territories the Republican Senate will see that they do not get in.

Koh, the Alliance candidate, has split the Democratic party in Alabama and is a candidate for Vice-President.

Guthrie, Oklahoma, seems to be acquiring some reputation. Two negro brutes outraged the wives of white men Sunday and one of the ravishers was pursued and shot down.
The other was captured, but identification was not satisfactory and he was released. The negroes then dashed into a race track and killed a dozen men. A colored mob organized to protect the prisoner and the whites flew to arms and were preparing for wholesale slaughter if the negroes opened fire.
The negroes made speeches threatening to burn the town if the prisoner was lynched.

DEATHS.

Mr. Benjamin Bradford, of Owen-boro, father of C. W. Bradford, formerly of the Messenger, died last week aged about 75 years.

Robert Nelson Green, infant son of Mr. Nelson D. Green, died at the home of his parents, Friday night, of cholera infantum. The interment took place Saturday.

On June 7, infant of Wm. Wood, four miles north of Fairview.

COLORED.

Jennie Golston, aged 16, died near Shiloh, 11 miles north of Fairview, on 10th inst.

MATRIMONIAL.

F. BOAZ—LESTER.—Archie Boaz and Miss Lena Lester, of Wallonia, eloped to Clarksville one day last week and were made one.

Gentlemen Not Ticketed.

Cerulean Springs, June 13.—Please announce that no invitations will be issued to gentlemen for the opening ball. All are expected.

evaporation of the Dead Sea.
The curious statement is published in the organ of the Palestine exploration fund, and it is there asserted that the Dead sea loses every day several million tons of water through evaporation. The water which daily draws up by the rays of the sun, the valley where the sea lies being as dry as the desert, is lost to the globe.
This vast basin is remarkable as being the deepest depression upon sea level in the world, being over one hundred feet below the level of the Mediterranean, and rocky walls rising to a height of over 1,000 feet, which surround it on all sides. It is nourished only by the river Jordan, and, therefore, no outlet for its waters is provided.
The Dead sea loses more water than it receives, and the water is constantly becoming saltier.
Dr. Lorier says that the waters of the lake are now twice as salty as the ocean, and at great heights above the sea, because that the human body easily floats on the surface without the slightest exertion of arms or legs. —T. S. T.

The convention concluded its labors at Friday night's session by the nomination of William R. Reid, editor and publisher of the New York Tribune, and ex-minister to France, for vice-President.

One of the objections presented against Mr. Reid's nomination was the attitude of the New York Tribune toward organized labor, the Tribune representing the workingmen.

We denounce the continued inhumanity, outrageousness, perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain Southern States of the Union.

We favor the extension of our commerce, the promotion of means of communication, the creation of a navy and the building of forts.

An English newspaper says that a church bell-ringer was ringing the bell, although it was pulled over to a comparatively height by the rope. He lost his balance and fell, but did not sustain any injury.

The Duke of Connaught is the first royal duke to visit this country. He is a member of the Church of England, and although its business is semi-philanthropic, he is equally popular.

We condemn the conduct of the Democrats in their opposition to the adoption of the custom-house bill.

We favor efficient legislation by Congress to protect the life and limbs of employees of transportation companies, engaged in carrying on interstate commerce, and recommend legi-lation by the respective States that will cause employees engaged in state commerce, in mining and manufacturing industries, to be protected.

The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed and recognizes the dignity of man, irrespective of faith, color, or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of labor in Ireland and elsewhere.

We demand the enactment of more stringent laws and regulations for the protection of criminal, pauper, and condemned inmates.

The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom and equality. We therefore recommend the adoption of a system of thought and education, of speech and press, and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of children of the land; but while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we oppose any union of church and state.

We condemn the opposition of the Democrats to the extension of postage rates and railroads, and the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration of principles:

We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We call attention to the growth abroad. We maintain that the pronouncements of our party are largely correct, and we recommend the adoption of the same legislation by the Republicans.

We support the policy of extending
affirm the advantages of the free delivery

all imports coming in to competition with those products of American labor that should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home. We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the tariff act of 1890.

We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives to destroy our tariff law by piecemeal, as is manifested by their attack on the bill to lead and lead out the chief articles of the tariff of the United States, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We point to the success of the policy of reciprocity, under which our export trade has vastly increased and our enlarged markets have given the stimulus to the production of our farms and workshops.

We remind the people of the construction of the Nicaragua canal is the highest interest to the American people.

The World's Columbian Exposition is a great national undertaking and Congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation in aid thereof as will insure a discharging of the expenses and obligations incident thereto, and the payment of recompense to those contractors with the dignity and progress of the nation.

We sympathize with all wise and legitimate efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality.

We commend the services and merit of the men who saved the lives of the soldiers of the Republic in the war, and we pledge our support to the cause of the veterans.

We command the wise and patriotic steps taken by our Government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver, and to settle the question of gold as money throughout the world.

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one ball and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast, and that the law shall be enacted so as to secure to every citizen, be he rich or poor, or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right, guaranteed by the Constitution, the free and honest representation of all the people, and the purity of elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every State.
